CAREC Post-Conference at the CSSE

Conference Title:

The ‘Wild’ Classroom in Early Childhood Education:
(Re) Imagining Learning and Being in the Outdoors

Join us for an informative and engaging day of provoking conversations and critical dialogue as we imagine and re-imagine the significance and role of ‘wild’ and natural outdoor places and spaces for children’s holistic development, learning, and well-being within the Canadian early childhood education field.

Specific details and the call for proposals to follow in January 2014
