

THE 4TH ANNUAL CANADIAN SYMPOSIUM ON INDIGENOUS TEACHER EDUCATION

“Moving Towards Reconciliation in Teacher Education”

SAVE THE DATE:

APRIL 6 - 8, 2016

UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, FREDERICTON

The Faculty of Education and the Mi'kmaq-Wolastoqey Centre at the University of New Brunswick are proud to host this unique conference bringing together teacher educators working in the Indigenous contexts to share ideas, experiences and innovations regarding teacher education programs.

A welcoming powwow followed by two days of panels and presentations highlight the theme of moving towards reconciliation in teacher education. Paper submissions will be considered under the complimentary areas of implementing the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) recommendations.

- in teacher education and transformative pedagogies;
- Indigenous language and culture resurgence;
- land-based education and Indigenous ways of knowing;
- self-governance and treaty education.

Early registration will start January 1, 2016 and end on February 29, 2016.

DATES:

WELCOME POWWOW: APRIL 6th, 2016, 12-5PM

SYMPOSIUM DATES: APRIL 7 & 8, 2016

LOCATION:

UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK, FREDERICTON

FEES:

EARLY REGISTRATION FEE (before Feb. 29): $150

REGULAR REGISTRATION FEE: $200

STUDENT REGISTRATION FEE: $75

PUBLIC KEYNOTE SPEAKER

JOSEPH BOYDEN

APRIL 6th, 2016 at 7PM

Tickets:

$20 Regular

$10 Student / Seniors

(This cost is included in registration fee for conference delegates)

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO GET ON OUR LISTSERV, PLEASE CONTACT:
Andrea Belczewski at abelczew@unb.ca

Education

Mi'kmaq-
Wolastoqey
Centre